

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

YUMANANG SALLAH

has successfully completed the

E-LEARNING COURSE ON CLIMATE CHANGE, PEACE AND SECURITY:
UNDERSTANDING CLIMATE-RELATED SECURITY RISKS THROUGH AN INTEGRATED LENS

February 3, 2024

Nikhil Seth

UN ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, UNITAR

E-LEARNING COURSE ON CLIMATE CHANGE, PEACE AND SECURITY:
UNDERSTANDING CLIMATE-RELATED SECURITY RISKS THROUGH AN INTEGRATED LENS

NAME: YUMANANG SALLAH

DATE OF ISSUANCE: February 3, 2024

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Identify climate-related security risks and their impacts on different groups of people
- Conduct integrated conflict and climate analysis, including by using a gender and social inclusion lens
- Design policies, strategies, and programmatic interventions that integrate climate change, conflict prevention, peacebuilding, and gender equality objectives

SECTIONS:

1. Climate Change, Peace and Security
2. Conducting Integrated Analysis
3. Designing integrated approaches for programming and planning

DURATION: 4.5 estimated hours for completion.

This course has been developed through a collaboration with the United Nations Environment Programme, the Climate Security Mechanism, UN Women, the One UN Climate Learning Partnership and adelphi, in partnership with the European Union and the Government of Finland.